Agency: Department of Retirement Systems

Subject of possible rule making: WAC sections pertaining to the actuarial re-computation of benefits for members who retire, re-enter employment, and then retire again. Sections include, but may not be limited to: WAC 415-104-111 (LEOFF 2), 415-108-830 (PERS), 415-110-830 (SERS), and 415-112-840 (TRS).

Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject: RCW 41.50.050(5),

Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish:

DRS will explore the need to make substantive changes, update and/or correct statutory references, and rewrite for clarity.

Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these agencies:

Process for developing new rule (check all that apply):

☐ Negotiated rule making

☐ Pilot rule making

☐ Agency study

☒ Other (describe) DRS will develop the draft rule(s) with the assistance of the Attorney General's office. The public is invited and encouraged to participate, as described in paragraph (e).

How interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication:

(List names, addresses, telephone, fax numbers, and e-mail of persons to contact; describe meetings, other exchanges of information, etc.)

DRS encourages your active participation in the rule-making process. After the rule(s) is drafted, DRS will file a copy with the Office of the Code Reviser with a notice of proposed rule making. The notice will include the time and date of a public rules hearing. DRS will send a copy of the notice and the proposed rule(s) to everyone currently on the mailing list and anyone else who requests a copy. To request a copy or for more information on how to participate, please contact:
